May 23rd, 2020 - not all writers share the same sense of whom they are writing for many may not even think they are directing their work at any audience in particular all the what do global novelists have in

May 12th, 2020 - one thing i discovered in writing the global novel is that there is a remarkable convergence of themes from writers in very different places and traditions global writers are very aware of being global and they often turn to the situation of women as a test of the health or sickness of world civilization'

'the global novel adam
