site specific
performance
May 19th, 2020 - site
specific performance
is performance
created in relation to a physical site
and staged at the site itself as opposed to a theatre
space it often
involves research of the site prior to the performance it is often discussed in relation to both
theatre and visual art traditions nick kaye was one of the first scholars to consider site
specific performance
from both theatrical and visual''*what is

specific performance
what is it a question addressed to the class in our very first workshop
pearson states that the term refers to a
staging and performance conceived
on the basis of a
place in the real world ergo outside
the established
theatre p 7 2010 this was the response of the majority of the class that it is a
performance specific to the site'

May 24th, 2020 - site specific performance originated as an outgrowth of site specific artwork

---

*movement that began in the late 1960 s
and early 1970 s site
specific artwork was a form of art that was created to exist in a certain space and was conditioned in form by the
environment and space
of that place at the centre of the site
specific artwork
movement was an attempt to take art out of what was perceived'*
