May 19th, 2020 - a recent study I read in Hyperallergic estimates that art by women sells for 47% less than work by men. While this is sad, I am not surprised as our own artnome research recently showed that you could buy the most expensive work by every major female artist for less than the price of a single da Vinci painting. That said, I am extremely bullish on the potential for cultural shifts from the' 'art collecting today market insights for everyone
