'dumplin book review mon sense media

May 15th, 2020 - parents need to know that dumplin is a thought provoking story of fat high school girl willowdean s struggle not with her weight but with her ability to see herself as someone who s worthwhile and deserves happiness the heroine is a great role model for self empowerment and there are lots of positive messages and lessons about not letting your appearance define who you are and what you do'

May 13th, 2020 - i know this book is part of a series therefore usually i d just think that the story is going to carry on in the next book and think little of it however as far as i know the next book follows a different set of characters therefore dumplin is for all intents and purposes more of a standalone book'

May 23rd, 2020 - dumplin is an excellent book the author captures the awkwardness and magic of being a teenager she also does a really good job of realistically writing about family dynamics grieving for a loved one and coping with high school the storyline is well paced and well told the narrator does an excellent job of
