'nonextensive statistical mechanics a brief introduction

May 15th, 2020 - boltzmann gibbs statistical mechanics is based on the entropy $s = -k \sum_i p_i \ln p_i$ it enables a successful thermal approach to ubiquitous systems such as those involving short range interactions markovian processes and generally speaking those systems whose dynamical occupancy of phase space tends to be ergodic'

'nonextensive entropy

May 31st, 2020 - entropy is considered to be an extensive property i e that its value depends on the amount of material present constantino tsallis has proposed a nonextensive entropy tsallis entropy which is a generalization of the traditional boltzmann gibbs entropy the rationale behind the theory is that gibbs boltzmann entropy leads to systems that have a strong dependence on initial conditions" introduction to nonextensive statistical mechanics
