April 28th, 2020 - the book is a follow up to Presumed Innocent and you really need to have read the latter to get value from the former Innocent is not as good the plot doesn t have the same kind of nail biting uncertainty and plexity and sudden twists and the trial scenes though good dont form a large part of the book and are not in the same league as Presumed Innocent'

'Book review of Presumed Innocent Readers Favorite Book

May 1st, 2020 - The beauty of this book is the courtroom drama The author allows his expertise to shine and the courtroom scenes are realistic I was unsure of Rusty?s guilt or innocence throughout the story The author kept me guessing Presumed Innocent is Scott Turow at his finest The secondary characters are just as well developed as the lead characters'
